

Community Lab

DESCRIPTION OF COMMUNITY LAB

INTRODUCTION:-

The college is having a separate community health nursing lab 900 Sq. feet. Area with all equipment's for education and practice of students to be familiar with community situation and to learn the basic skill and nursing procedures which has to be performed in community settings. We are having ample of A.V Aids to stimulate the students for the community health nursing practice.

Community lab makes the students clinical experience an educational and enlightening one and promotes empowerment of students. Demonstration and re-demonstration of different procedures are done prior to their posting in community area. It also helps in problem solving and decision making skills. Demonstration makes the learning more realistic and authentic.

Community health nursing lab ensures that the students learn home visiting bag technique and practice. Community health nursing procedure while providing family health care at the door steps of the clients with using modified home visit kits.

Community health nursing laboratory helps students to develop desirable knowledge and attitude and skill for to ender comprehensive care to the individual, family and community.

The Laboratory consists of models like ideal home ideal village different types of wells, methods of water purification etc.

The department prepares students to undertake the socially conscious task of providing health care to both rural and urban communities. Students are thought to recognize the importance of health, prevention of disease and promotion of positive health.

An Experience staffs provides excellent theoretical and practical orientations to students. They are guided to provide care to individual, family, and communities. They are also incorporate by epidemiological principles. To prevent disease, promote health and restore health .Students participate in various national health programme.

The institute has distinction of being one of the rare few in the state to offer Undergraduate, Post Basic and Post graduate in community health nursing.

COMMUNITY LAB

Community health nursing is the community oriented primary health care programme and the integration of community medicine with primary health care of individual and community.

AIMS:- students are render comprehensive care to the individual family and community and develop center understanding of rural community health management.

OBJECTIVES:-

- Students render comprehensive care to the individual family and community.
- Students are able to involve in community participation
- Students develop clinical skills.
- Students develop IPR with the village leaders, community and other agencies.
- Students organize, assist and conduct health camp.
- Students organize, assist conduct the school health and child health programme.

FACILITIES:-

- In our institute the community lab is proper equipped and well furnished with healthy environment of learning.
- The lab consist of the all equipment providing the basic care in term of primary health care like community bag, maternity kit and others.
- The lab is arranged in such a manner that student of the nursing programme can practice the procedure and make their effective A.V.aids by using various charts displayed in community health care and education programme for raising the health status of individuals.
- The college is providing all the necessary articles to students for their better understandings.